

Paula Molinari is a singer and a voice researcher and teaches at the Federal University of Piauí (UFPI) in Brazil, and is a thesis supervisor at the National university of Rosary (UNR) in Argentina. She works with acclaimed artists and voice professionals mainly in Latin America and the Caribbean. She studied indigenous song and has an MA in Speech Therapy and PhD in Communication and Semiotics. She has more than 30 years experience teaching and leading groups working with artistic creation.

Paula Molinari trained with Rossignol, David Goldsworthy, Carol Mendelsohn, Saule Ryan and Kaya M. Anderson. She speaks Portuguese, Spanish, French and English.

Latin Theatre International Voice and Hart Voice Work

